Price on Application

An excellent opportunity has arisen to purchase the former Macaskills Homes Store premises in the town of Stornoway on the Isle of Lewis. These premises have recently been used for retail and storage purposes and offer great potential for further development, separately or jointly.

The middle and right hand side building is a semi-detached, 1.5 storey property and extends to approximately 587.8sqm and comprises shop floor and showroom, W.C., office, workshop and warehouse. There is a showroom and warehouse on the first floor. There is ample, tarred parking to the front and the potential for further parking to the rear.

The left hand building is a terraced 1.5 storey, industrial style property and extends to approximately 1184.0sqm and comprises showroom/warehouse, W.C.s and kitchen on the ground floor and large warehouse on the first floor. There is ample parking to the front of the building.

Services to the properties include mains gas, water and three phase electricity. Heating is partial and is a combination of oil fired and night storage heaters.

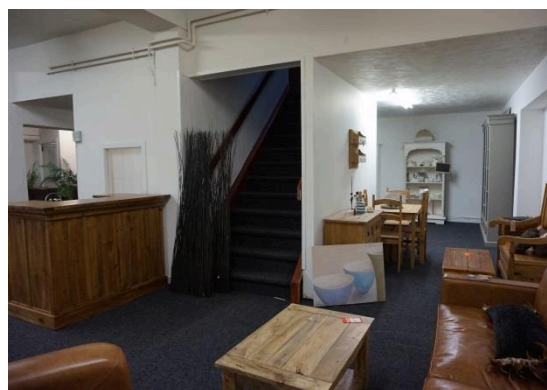

Both properties are centrally located in a primarily commercial area all amenities nearby.

Viewing is by appointment only and is highly recommended to fully appreciate these properties.
