The property is bright, airy and well maintained throughout, offering comfortable accommodation in walk-in condition.

The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, a spacious kitchen/dining area, lounge, hallway with useful under stair storage, a family bathroom and dining room which could also serve as a home office. The first floor provides a generous double bedroom and a single bedroom. In addition, there is substantial floored loft space above the kitchen, offering excellent storage potential.

Recent improvements include the installation of modern smart storage heaters, while uPVC double glazing is fitted throughout, enhancing both comfort and energy efficiency.

Set within attractive, well-maintained gardens enclosed by traditional stone walls, the property enjoys a charming and private outdoor setting enhanced by a variety of mature shrubs and planting. The grounds also benefit from two timber sheds, one of which is equipped with electrical power, along with a detached concrete shed, also with power. These outbuildings provide excellent storage and offer potential for a range of uses, including a workshop, studio, or hobby space.

The property is ideally positioned to enjoy the stunning natural beauty of the area, with several scenic coastal walking routes nearby. Local amenities include a primary school and filling station, while a regular bus service provides convenient access to Stornoway, approximately 15 miles away, where a full range of shops, services and leisure facilities can be found.
